

WA COUNTRY BUILDERS AFL SCHOLARSHIP 2017

In 2017 the WA Country Builders (WACB) will award its 6th scholarship to a player turning 16 that year (born 2001) who is registered and plays in the Great Northern Junior Football League. The inaugural scholarship winner was awarded to Grady Tomelty in 2012, followed by Nathan Trusso in 2013, Ryan Hobbs 2014, Jaimone Alone 2015 and Max Murphy last year in 2016.

The scholarship will be headed by Northampton product and West Coast Eagle key forward Josh Kennedy who will lead the selection and management of the scholarship including mentoring the winner during their junior football years.

The scholarship will be valued at $5,000, which will comprise the following:

- (i) Training kit including 2 pairs of boots, joggers, Tracksuit and a bag if you desire.
- (ii) 2 flights to Perth for the winner and a parent including tickets to a West Coast Eagle game and the opportunity to observe the team warm up.
- (iii) The remainder to be used to assist in the player's football development and at the parents' discretion.

Josh Kennedy will mentor the winner during the scholarship year, in one – one meetings and telephone contact.

Applicants will complete an entry form obtained from the Mid West WA Country Builders website and lodge it by 16th April 2017, with the presentation to be made by Josh Kennedy in APRIL.

Selection will be based on their determination and commitment to succeed in AFL, on performance in there junior level with liaison from junior football managers, their club, East Fremantle Talent Squads and in liaison with the East Fremantle Football Club's Development Manager and also the Midwest academy.
